Julie Paluda Completes Leadership Maryland

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Jan. 3, 2018 – Calvert County Department of Public Works Deputy Director, Enterprise Funds Julie Paluda has completed the professional development program dedicated to building a better Maryland by harnessing the strength of its local business and community leaders. Leadership Maryland honored Paluda, a resident of Huntingtown, and the entire Class of 2017 at its 25th annual graduation ceremony held in December at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Paluda was one of 52 applicants chosen by committee to complete Leadership Maryland's eight-month hands-on learning program focused on the state's most vital social, economic and environmental issues.

"On behalf of the Board of Directors, I feel especially honored to congratulate Leadership Maryland's silver anniversary graduating class on beginning their lifelong inclusion in a very special club," said Leadership Maryland Board Chairman Eric Brotman '09, president and managing principal, Brotman Financial Group. "These graduates have had experiences and built relationships over the past eight months that will impact their career, life, and our state for many years to come. After 25 years, the influence Leadership Maryland's program and alumni have had on the State of Maryland is immeasurable, and the Class of 2017 should be very proud to now be a part of this organization's rich history."
