Happy Holidays from Calvert County Department of Economic Development!

This year has been one we won't soon forget – and not necessarily for the best of reasons.

2020 has been a challenge and we've all had to rearrange, adjust and pivot to address new realities. However, we didn't want the year to pass without taking a moment to send fond wishes to our business owners, friends and colleagues.

This holiday season, we hope you find comfort and joy in your family and friends. We also hope you continue to reach out to us in 2021; we'll be here for you. And we're eager to assist.

Have a safe, happy and peaceful holiday season!
