Thomas Barnett to Lead Department of Community Planning and Building

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Sept. 26, 2013 – The Calvert County Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) is pleased to announce the addition of Thomas Barnett as director of the Calvert County Department of Community Planning and Building, effective Sept. 30.

Barnett was most recently president of Hands On Consulting and prior to that was the executive director of metropolitan development for the city of Evansville, Ind. During that time he was responsible for long-range planning, residential and commercial construction management and redevelopment of the city.

Barnett said he is excited to be relocating to Calvert County and anticipates a great relationship with residents.

“I want to sit down and listen to the desires and expectations of the community – everyone from my bosses to the people who live there – and try to figure out what the community wants as a whole,” Barnett said.

Calvert County Administrator Terry Shannon said she knows Barnett will be able to use his extensive experience in a variety of planning positions as he helps Calvert County move forward.

“Mr. Barnett has worked in Texas, Kentucky and Indiana, and each of those regions has very different needs,” Shannon said. “We believe that diversity of experience will be an asset to our community.”
