Calvert County Accepting Applications for Second Annual Recycling Awards Program

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md. – Dec. 2, 2016 –The Calvert County Solid Waste Division is accepting applications for its second annual recycling awards program to recognize individuals, businesses, government agencies and more for recycling ingenuity and results.

“This program came out of the gate strong last year and we are excited to again highlight new successes and inspire even more people to actively join our recycling efforts,” explained Calvert County Recycling Program Specialist Keith Roumfort. “We want to build on last year’s fantastic response from a diverse group of contributors including large and small businesses, schools, government and private citizens. Our goal is to promote innovative recycling solutions and share best practices in our community.”

More than 30 categories will be awarded to eligible profit or non-profit businesses, agencies, organizations, institutions or individuals who operate or live in Calvert County. Eligible participants must recycle waste material generated within Calvert County and provide verifiable documentation of their efforts. The categories include education, agriculture, government, housing, private citizens and many more. Winners will be recognized with public promotions and at a ceremony with the Calvert County Board of County Commissioners.

Learn more and get an application online at www.co.cal.md.us/RecyclingAwards .
Nominations will be accepted until Saturday, April 29, 2017 at 4 p.m. Like Calvert County Government on Facebook.
